

BUSINESS FRENCH

On your marks, get set, speak!

Published: Jan 2021

Is French causing problems in your company?

Have you ever noticed any of the following situations:

- An employee having difficulty understanding during meetings and does not participate;
- An employee staying isolated during lunch breaks and does not interact with others;
- A person who has difficulty finding the right word to express exactly his/her thoughts;
- An employee who has difficulty understanding e-mails and corporate correspondence;
- An email full of grammar and spelling mistakes was sent to a client.

... These situations, very frequent, can be very frustrating and can harm the image of the company ...

At Loghati Language Center, we guide and train motivated professionals who want to master a foreign language in order to have better career opportunities, to be more confident in their communications, understand and speak better.

After taking courses with us, our students told us they:

- Have better understanding of grammar rules;
- Have more confidence in speaking and writing;
- Give a positive image of the company;
- Are able to integrate easily into Canadian and Quebec culture;
- Succeed DELF, DALF, TFI, TEFAQ, OQLF or any other exam.

«I recommend Loghati Language Center where I completed my training last fall. I live on the South Shore and it is the only language school that offers high standard courses in the region. Teaching is digitized so I can review all of my class notes at home on my computer. The quality of teaching is excellent and targets the world of work (professional French). In terms of location, access to the center is very convenient and parking is free. »

Our solutions for the employer:

- ❑ Courses are approved by the CPMT *
- ❑ Course notes available online and accessible on smartphones or laptops;
- ❑ Program based on new teaching methods and the latest neuroscience studies to maximize learning a new language.
- ❑ Monthly evaluation with report available;
- ❑ Attendance sheet signed after each course;
- ❑ Turnkey services for businesses:
 - We create lesson plans in sync with employer's needs and goals;
 - Provide all necessary resources;
 - Offer personalized follow-up to students having more trouble learning French.

CPMT: Commission des Partenaires du Marché du Travail aux fins de l'application de la Loi favorisant le développement et la reconnaissance des compétences de la main-d'œuvre.*

Our advice for businesses:

- Encourage newcomers to speak and learn French;
- Capture Momentum from the first days of their arrival to offer them language training. This is when they are most motivated and curious to learn.
- Prepare and involve all the team to welcome this new person (coaching or mentoring). Engaged employees are more productive, more positive towards the company and more motivated.
