Is French causing you problems?

Have you ever experienced any of the following:

- Having difficulty understanding when people are talking around you or when you have a phone call;
- Feeling embarrassed to express yourself in public, with your colleagues or people around you;
- Having trouble finding the right word to express exactly what you want to say;
- Feeling isolated because you cannot interact with others;
- Having difficulty understanding the e-mail/letters and communications from school, government, media, or other;
- Being refused when you apply for a job because you do not speak French well enough.

We understand you ....

... And we know how frustrating it can be ...

Invest 3 months (or more *!) of your life to learn and master French once and for all!

«I recommend Loghati Language Center where I attended my training last fall. I live on the South Shore and it is the only language school that offers high standard courses in the region. Class notes are posted online so I can review all the lessons at home on my computer or tablet. The quality of education is excellent and targets the world of work (professional French). In terms of location, access to the center is very convenient and parking is free. »
